

Product Description

Esit J-type connection boxes gather the electrical signals from the load cells and transmit them to the indicators. With the trimpots in the J-Box, the load cell signals can easily be equalized.

Dimensions

(All measurements are expressed in millimeters)

Esit reserves the right to modify, without prior notice, the products in accordance with technological developments.